

This is the first grass shoot. It stands for C which is Cohesion. It has been kept bold to make an impact.

This also stands for a human hand which shows that there is a human touch to all our endeavors and we are giving support to people but at the same time not overprotecting them.

The colour has been selected as a colour which stands for professionalism, maturity and depth.

This stands for Foundation 'F' and Trust 'T'

They also depict people who are aspiring for growth. These people are the grassroots people belonging to the marginalised areas of the society

This shows ground and little grass which shows the growth from grassroots level. Further it shows the lifeline also.

COHESION
FOUNDATION TRUST

This has been placed intentionally at the foundation of the grass to symbolise the foundation
